

The Fabric Year 2020

The Fiber Year together with Groz-Beckert will again provide exciting insights into important textile markets, taking a holistic approach from fibers to fabrics.

Following events in 2016 and 2018 at Groz-Beckert Headquarters, the 2020 edition of the presentation series "The Fabric Year" will be held as digital event in English language. Total time will be not more than 45 minutes and participation is free of charge.

We offer the video presentation on Friday, October 30, and Monday, November 2, both at two different times.

Previous registration is necessary for your participation. Please follow the link below, select the date and time that works best for you and register.

The event is a pre-recorded video. However, we want to give you the opportunity to raise questions afterwards. You will find a contact address at the end of the presentation.

Please feel free to share this invitation with colleagues you think might be interested in this topic.

We would be pleased to welcome you as part of our audience.
